

I support media diversity

I am quite distressed over the proposed rule changes regarding mediownership. Media consolidation will be the result and while big may not be intrinsically bad the idea of few voices is. Fewer voices not just in the news, but the arts, entertainment, sports, and so on.

Thank you,

James Flanagan